Hi, I'm Clare and since 2010, I have been a documentary wedding photographer capturing authentic and timeless weddings all around the world - documentary with a touch of editorial magic. Originally from Yorkshire, I'm a straight talking, fun-loving lass who now lives in Newark, Nottinghamshire with my family. I'm a mum to five children and have two much adored dogs too! When I'm not capturing weddings, I enjoy spending time with my brood, traveling and I'm a reformer plates addict! I started off shooting on film, developing my own skills in the dark room at college!

I photographed my first wedding totally unintentionally for a friend, I felt like I had found my calling and my love affair for weddings began! I feel so incredibly lucky to be a wedding photographer! I approach every wedding with an open mind and excitement in my belly! With over 400 weddings under my belt, I'm experienced, confident, authentic and cerebral! I arrive at every wedding rearing to go, I bring lots of energy and pride myself on helping my couples and their families feel relaxed. SOY HELLO!

As all things clothing-related online I was hopeful yet skeptical of this jacket, I am truly very impressed with the quality. Very robust stitching, high-quality zippers, beautiful leather, and overall fit are perfect
